ISSUE

The covers of the driver and passenger air bag modules MUST NOT be repainted for any reason. Any applied paint may damage the cover material. This could affect air bag performance during deployment and may increase the risk of injury during a collision.

ACTION

Air Bag Modules with damaged or marred deployment covers MUST BE COMPLETELY

REPLACED - NOT REPAINTED. Refer to the Dealer Master Parts Catalog for correct parts usage. Air bag modules are on the Mandatory Return List and must be returned to the Warranty Parts Return Center. Refer to Figure 1. Refer to TSB 91-9-1 for air bag return information.
